A DELTA DICKENS CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL

Saturday, December 12—Downtown Greenwood/Howard Street
10 a.m.-3 p.m.

VENDOR GUIDELINES

- All vendors must supply their own freestanding 10 x 10 tent and tables.
- All tents must have a 40lb weight for their tent. If your tent is not weighted, you will not be allowed to participate in the festival. This is encouraged to avoid wind gusts blowing tents away.
- Tent legs may not be staked into the pavement.
- No amplified sound is permitted to becoming from any booth.
- The arts and crafts village will be set up in the Stapcotn parking lot on the corner of Howard and Washington Street.
- Vendors may begin setup at 8 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 13. Your booth must be ready to open by 10 a.m.
- The $50 vendor fee must be paid no later than Nov. 15, 2026.
- No space or electrical heaters are allowed. Propane heaters are allowed. (1 lb only)
- Artists should be present and available during festival hours.
- Artists must remain at the festival site until the planned end of the festival at 3 p.m.
- An exhibit must feature original, handcrafted art, created by the artist or collaborative team who applied to the festival. An artist must guarantee that the work presented is authentic and created as indicated in the artist's application.
- Artists must exhibit artwork that reflects the quality and craftsmanship of the pieces presented in their applications. Artists must exhibit artwork specific to the categories indicated on their applications.
- The event will take place, rain or shine. Vendors will be given instructions on weather plans if necessary.
- Artists participate at their own risk and assume responsibility for maintaining liability insurance that covers any damages or losses during the festival.
- Sales tax must be collected from all sales and turned in at the END of the festival to the Chamber. We will collect from each of you BEFORE you leave the event site. (Checks or Cash are accepted)
